

Honolulu Museum of Art

Art of the Ancient World

Tour Evaluation

Tour Goal - Were students able to recognize art from places they were studying? Yes No

What areas were your students currently studying?

•

Were they able to locate the ancient civilizations on the map? Yes No

Did they connect the changes in art to developing technologies?

•

Did they see common themes in the art of different civilizations?
Which common threads were most interesting? Yes No

•

Gallery 1 - Did you ask them to be adults around the nudes before you entered? Yes No
How did they explain the changes in the human form through the ages? Yes No

Gallery 17 - What did your students decide they might take with them for the next life?

•

Were they able to determine the function of some of the artifacts? Yes No

Gallery 19/20 - Did your students connect the Han Dynasty to the Chinese tomb treasures? Yes No
Did your students discuss the transmission of ideas on the Silk Road? Yes No

Gallery 23 - What basic needs for all ancient civilizations did the students come up with?

•

Did they see the jewelry as a product of a more advanced society? Yes No

Did your students sketch? Yes No Did they take notes? Yes No
Were they able to interpret the past through art?

•

Did they discuss how our civilization might be interpreted in the future from objects we leave behind?

•

What work of art seemed to be the favorite of the tour?

•

What indications did you see that the students were engaged on your tour?

•

Did the students want more or were they ready to leave?

•

Who spoke more - you or the students? Who had more fun - you or the students?

•