

LOOK at the details in these works of art.
What questions do you have?

CONSIDER

What do you notice about these people?

What do these works of art tell us about early American life?

How are these people's life's the same or different from your life today?

REPORT

Tell your classmates what you think.

LOOK at the details in these works of art.
What questions do you have?

CONSIDER

What age might he/she be? What makes you think that?

What do these works of art tell us about early American life?

How are these people's life's the same or different from your life today?

REPORT

Tell your classmates what you think.

LOOK at the details in these works of art.
What questions do you have?

CONSIDER

What do the clothes and objects tell you about him/her?

What do these works of art tell us about early American life?

How are these people's life's the same or different from your life today?

REPORT

Tell your classmates what you think.

LOOK at the details in these works of art.
What questions do you have?

CONSIDER
What might he/she be thinking?

What do these works of art tell us about early American life?

How are these people's life's the same or different from your life today?

REPORT
Tell your classmates what you think.

LOOK at the details in these works of art.
What questions do you have?

CONSIDER
What might he/she do each day? Work? Play? School?

What do these works of art tell us about early American life?

How are these people's life's the same or different from your life today?

REPORT
Tell your classmates what you think.

LOOK at the details in these works of art.
What questions do you have?

CONSIDER
Would you like to know this person? Why?

What do these works of art tell us about early American life?

How are these people's life's the same or different from your life today?

REPORT
Tell your classmates what you think.

