

Honolulu Museum of Art

STEAM @ the Museum

Docent Self-Evaluation

Tour Goal - Did your students all agree that artists and scientists work alike, both using the scientific process? Yes No

Did the students participate in problem solving in all galleries? Yes No

After the vent exercise, where your students connect art and technology? Yes No
Did they have a lot of questions artists and scientists might ask about materials? Yes No

Gallery 5 - Where your students able to discover how artists create a sense of depth on a flat surface? Yes No
Could they successfully apply what they saw in their drawing? Yes No

Gallery 6 - What did your students discover about color?
•

Did your students conclude that rocks were used for paint? Yes No

How did they determine the numbers of colors Monet used? Yes No

Were you students able to determine how the new technologies you introduced changed painting? Yes No

Gallery 7 - Could your students articulate the difference between mixing paint and mixing light? Yes No

Gallery 10 - Could your students explain how and why dots create art? Yes No

Mediterranean Courtyard - Did the students connect the solar project to other parts of the tour? Yes No

Gallery 17- Were your students able to conclude that MUD is the best material for vessel making? Yes No

Could they determine the process from the samples before the video? Yes No

Kinau Courtyard - Did your students determine that glass is made from sand? Yes No
Were the students able to determine the differences between clay and glass? Yes No

What were their favorite pieces?

-

Gallery 13 - Did your students determine that metal was the material used in the mobile?

Yes No

Were they able to construct a mobile just by looking with tesserae or the colorful pieces?

Yes No

Central Courtyard - Did your students want to measure Penelope to calculate her weight?

Yes No

Doris Duke Theater - How did your students enjoy the theater presentation?

Yes No

How was this different than your tour?

-

What indications did you see that the students were engaged on your tour?

-

Did the students want more or were they ready to leave?

-